

TECHNICAL EXPERTISE FOR INSTALLATION AND FITTINGS OF ALL LABORATORIES

The Company has professionally qualified technical staff for machines installations with high technical skills in all kind of Laboratories installation and fittings. These are our strength for we have invested in building a close team of individual with excellent knowledge and experience.

Our Technical experts and the Entire Nebrix professionals is important to us, we continuously invest in their training and development for our customers to get the most effective, most cost efficient and highly innovative products and services as possible.

We also provide repair and maintenance of the machines or fittings installed which is after sale service.

For longer-term sustainability training on the specific product, machine or general installation and fittings is important, these are services that we offer our clients.

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

Nebrix also offers transport services to our clients, these is to ensure safety of the products and machines and avoid unnecessary cost.

We have a fleet of vehicles and motorcycles for smaller items which ensures quick and reliable delivery of our products.

